ABOUT US

JR Packaging is a long-standing Australian provider of packaging products and services. The company was founded in 1979 in Sydney by Jim Giannakos. Jim founded the company with the vision to offer a tailored customer experience for clients who are looking for high quality, cost-effective packaging solutions.

Jim believes a consultative approach to offering his products and services to clients in a timely and reliable manner has meant that, 40 years later the JR Packaging tradition continues today with many of JR Packaging' original clients still relying on Jim and his teams' technical expertise for their packaging needs.

Today, two generations of the Giannakos family work at the JR Packaging headquarters in Marrickville. Offering innovative, cost effective packaging solutions to our clients nationwide and across numerous industries. JR Packaging prides itself in being able to offer a comprehensive range of products and solutions that can be tailored for any company, from a small start-up through to a large multi-national company.

WHY JR PACKAGING

Thanks to decades of experience in the industry JR Packaging has built a large network of suppliers and delivery channels to ensure that our customers get high quality, cost effective products that can be delivered in a timely and reliable manner. Ensuring that you always have the stock that you require at any given time.

Our customer centric approach to servicing our clients is unique, because JR Packaging is family run, all our clients receive dedicated attention from an account manager who has a vested interest in the success of your relationship with JR Packaging. All our team are highly technical and have decades of experience in the packaging industry, allowing them to customise our products based on your unique requirements.

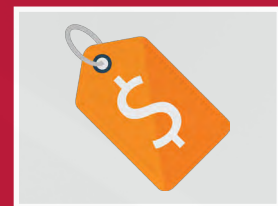

Here at JR Packaging we focus on our three foundation pillars;

Customer Service & Satisfaction

Quality Products

Competitive Pricing

We are small enough to care and big enough to cater for all your packaging requirements!
